Langhorne Creek Expo @ The Hilton Hotel, Brisbane

Master of Ceremonies: Industry Authority & Wine Writer, Tyson Stelzer

In June, The Wine Society will host another spectacular interactive Food and Wine experience: The Langhorne Creek Expo, at The Hilton Hotel, Brisbane. Three Mini-Masterclasses (below) will be hosted by industry personalities to showcase over 40 wines - celebrating a region that produces some of Australia's most revered wines...

Become a Winemaker (40 minutes)

Langhorne Creek Winemakers Greg Follett (Lake Breeze) and Paul Hotker will have you blending up your very own red wine, using premium parcels of the region's two iconic varietals: Shiraz & Cabernet. Will your blend stand out from the crowd?

Savour the Flavours (40 minutes)

Indulge in a structured food and wine matching exercise in this interactive 40-minute Masterclass. You'll pair 3 dishes with 3 beautiful Langhorne Creek wines. Hosted by the Hilton's guest Chef, you'll discover why these wines work so well with a wide range of flavours.

The Meeting of the Minds (40 minutes)

As you taste a flight of signature Langhorne Creek wines, Master of Ceremonies and respected wine journalist Tyson Stelzer will combine with Winemaker Ben Potts and other Langhorne Creek identities to lead a vibrant discussion on the challenges and rewards absorbed by the wineries of Langhorne Creek.

There'll also be an informal break-out session in the Queen's Ballroom between each Masterclass. Here, you'll match a selection of canapés to a stunning line-up of Langhorne Creek wines from the 9 participants, including Lake Breeze, Brothers in Arms, Gypsy Jack, Ben Potts, Bleasdale, Bremerton, Cleggetts, Ben Glaetzer's Heartland, & Angas Plains.
